

The Journey of a Lifetime

While many are only afforded the opportunity to visit the House of

Allāh once in a lifetime, and others may not even be afforded that opportunity, there are others whom Allāh invites back to His House time and time again. We ask Allāh to make us from among them.

CONNECT

@madrasahurwah

The Journey of a Lifetime

‘Abdullāh bin Wahb (may Allāh have mercy on him) would divide his time into three parts: a third guarding the borders, a third teaching the people in Egypt, and a third on pilgrimage. He performed Ḥajj 36 times.

CONNECT

@madrasahurwah

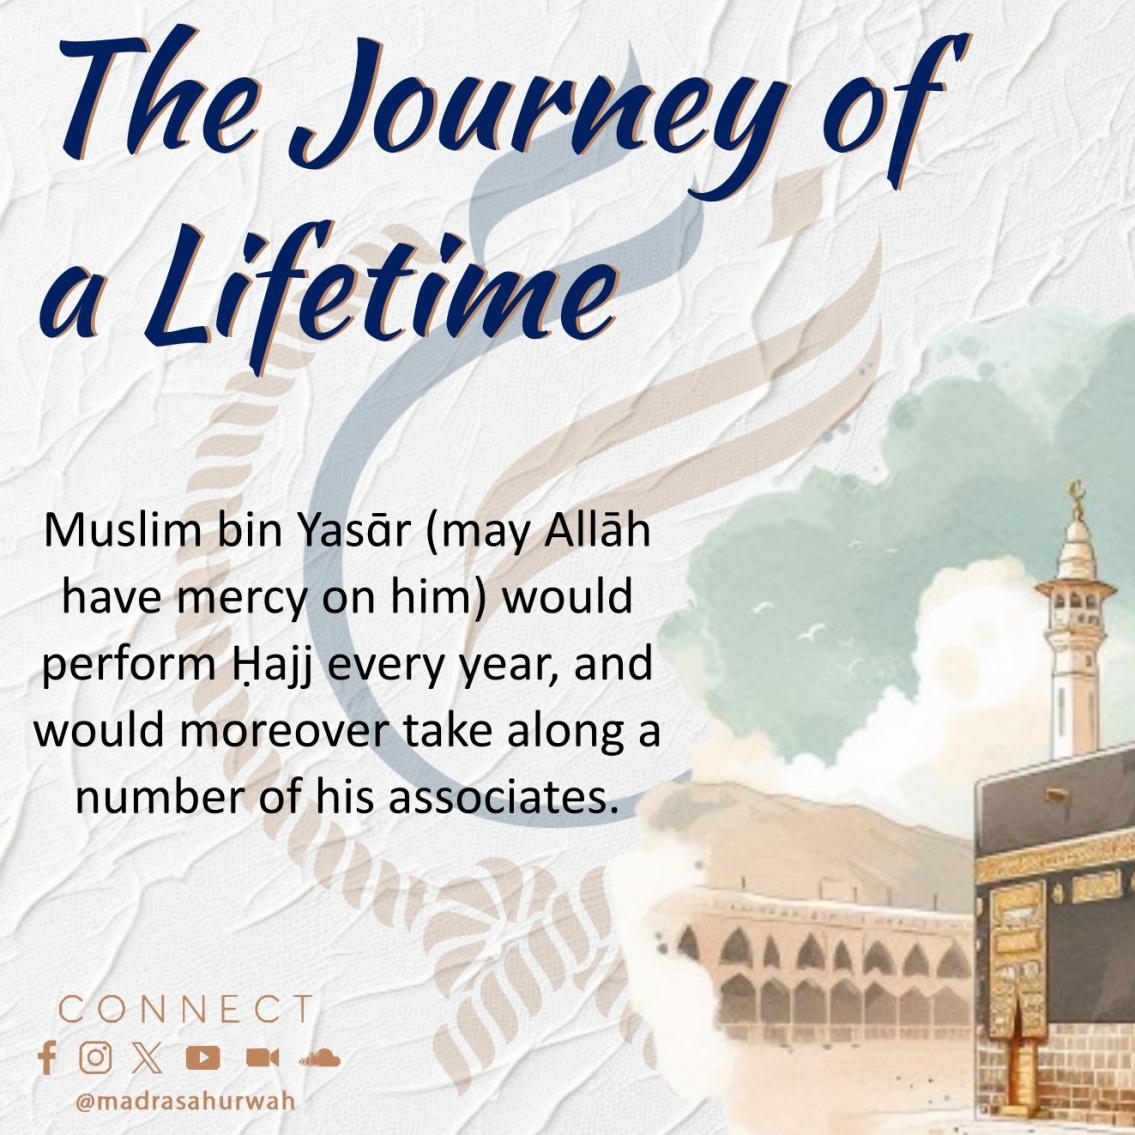

The Journey of a Lifetime

‘Isā bin Yūnus (may Allāh have mercy on him) went out on 45 military expeditions, and performed an equal number of Hajj.

CONNECT

@madrasahurwah

The Journey of a Lifetime

Muslim bin Yasār (may Allāh have mercy on him) would perform Ḥajj every year, and would moreover take along a number of his associates.

CONNECT

@madrasahurwah

The Journey of a Lifetime

Sufyān bin ‘Uyaynah (may Allāh have mercy on him) said, “I was present on the Plains of ‘Arafah 80 times”. It is mentioned that each time, he would supplicate, “O Allāh, don’t let it be my last time meeting you!” The year he passed away, he didn’t make this supplication, saying, “I have become shy of Allāh”.

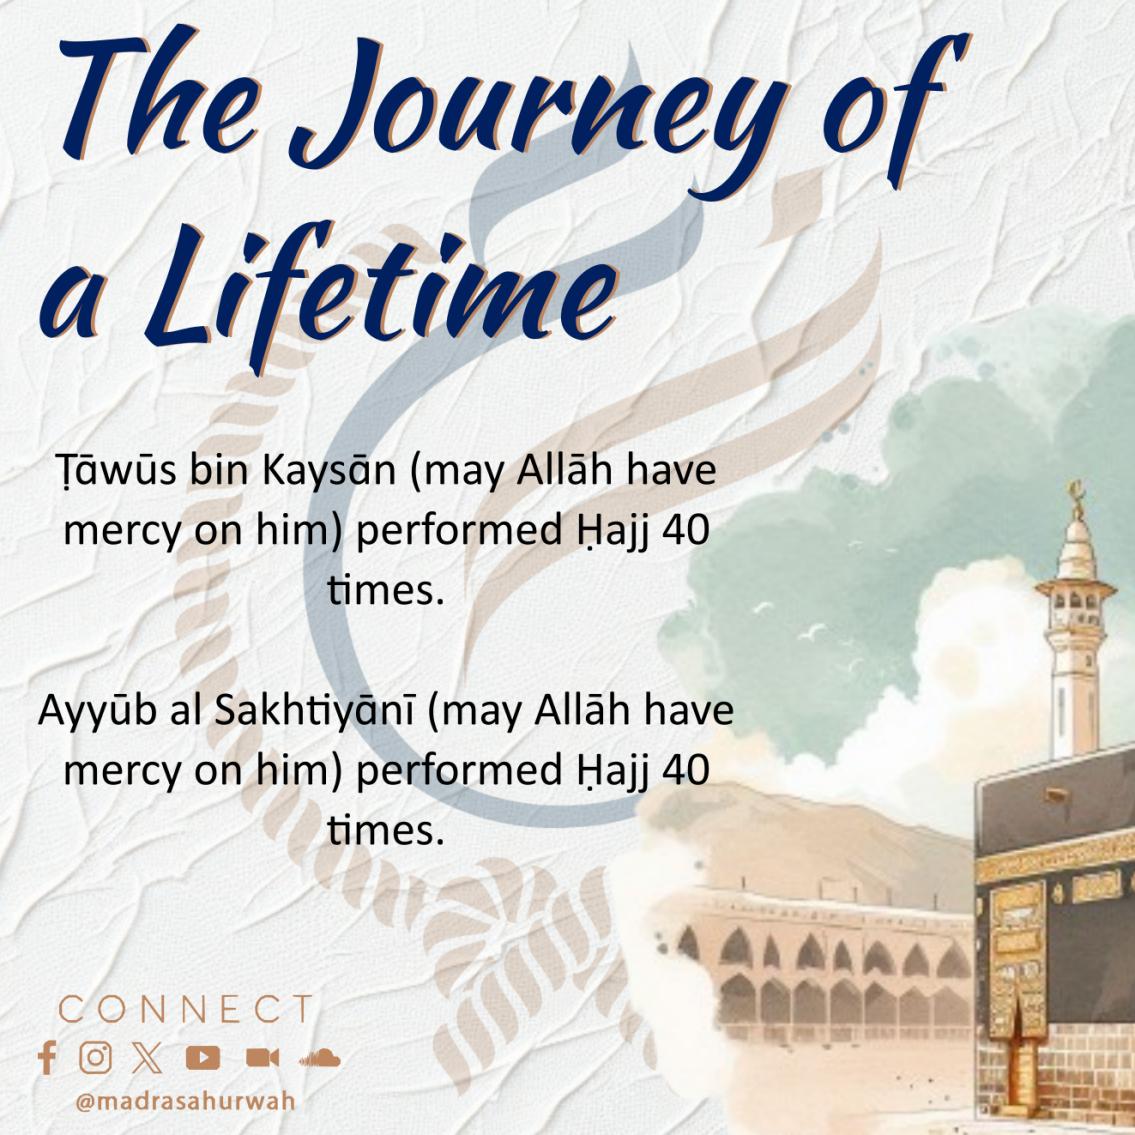

CONNECT

@madrasahurwah

The Journey of a Lifetime

Ṭāwūs bin Kaysān (may Allāh have mercy on him) performed Ḥajj 40 times.

Ayyūb al Sakhtiyānī (may Allāh have mercy on him) performed Ḥajj 40 times.

CONNECT

@madrasahurwah

The Journey of a Lifetime

Hilāl bin Khabbāb relates that he once set out with Sa‘īd bin Jubair (may Allāh have mercy on them) in the month of Rajab, having donned the iḥrām for ‘Umrah in Kūfah. Upon returning from his ‘Umrah, Sa‘īd again donned his iḥrām halfway through Dhū al Qa‘dah. In fact, he would don the iḥrām twice a year, once for Hajj, and once for ‘Umrah.

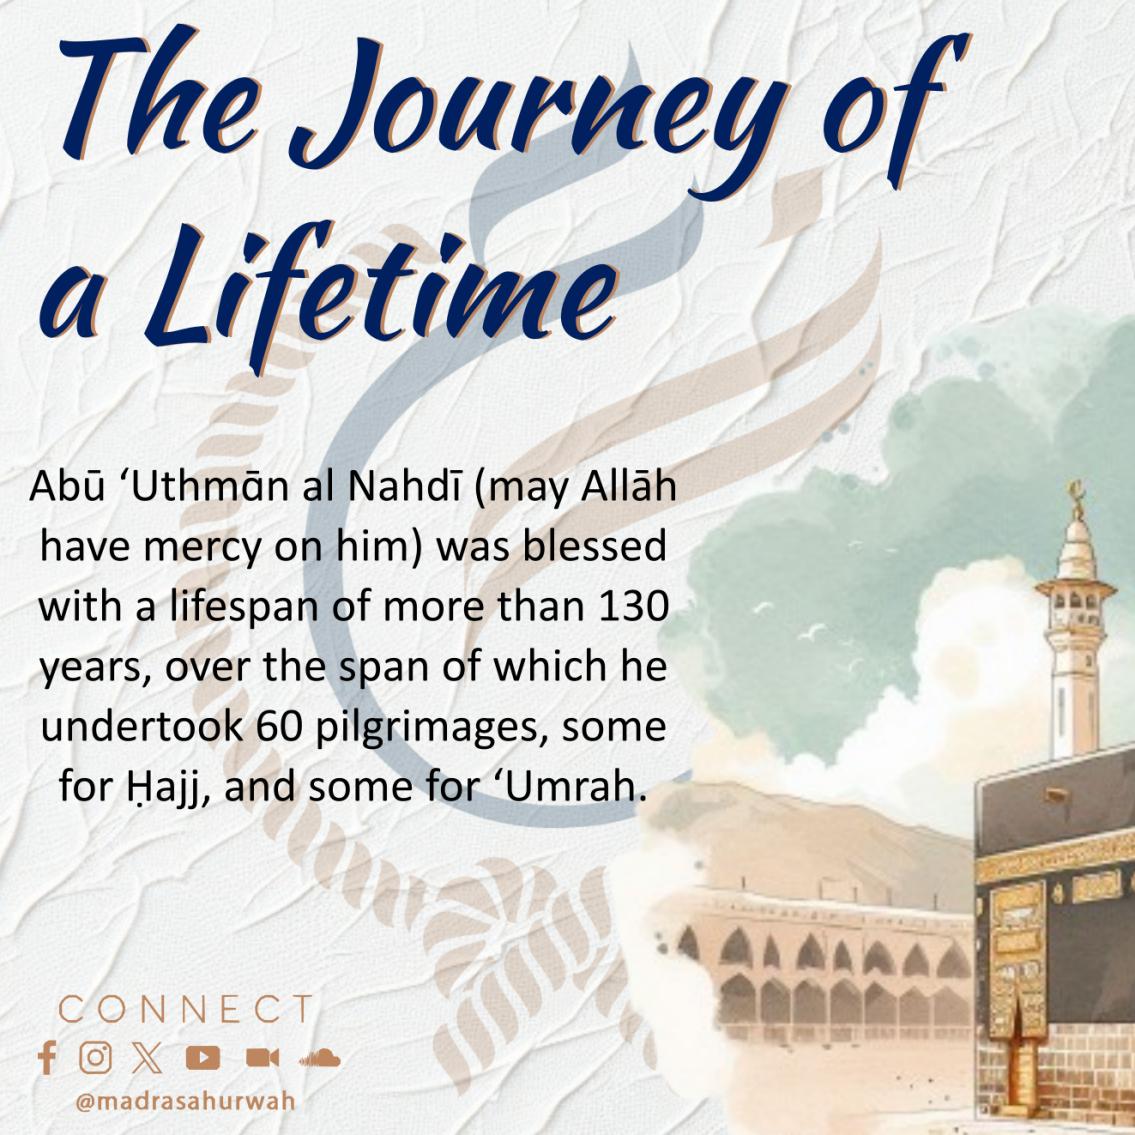

CONNECT

@madrasahurwah

The Journey of a Lifetime

Abū ‘Uthmān al Nahdī (may Allāh have mercy on him) was blessed with a lifespan of more than 130 years, over the span of which he undertook 60 pilgrimages, some for Ḥajj, and some for ‘Umrah.

CONNECT

@madrasahurwah

The Journey of a Lifetime

Sa‘īd bin al Musayyib (may Allāh have mercy on him) said, “I performed Hajj 40 times”.

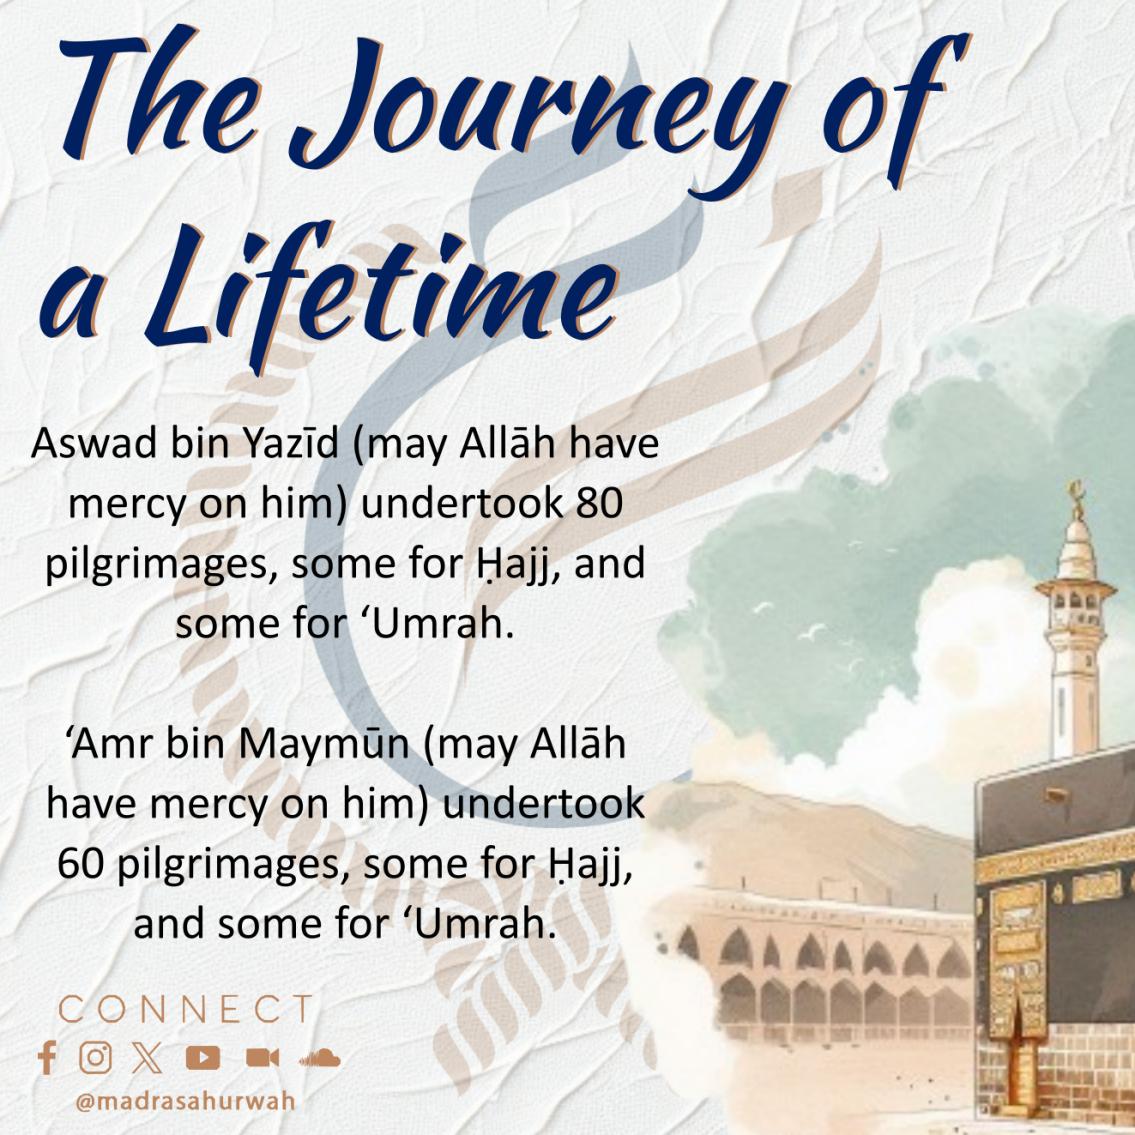

CONNECT

@madrasahurwah

The Journey of a Lifetime

Aswad bin Yazīd (may Allāh have mercy on him) undertook 80 pilgrimages, some for Ḥajj, and some for ‘Umrah.

‘Amr bin Maymūn (may Allāh have mercy on him) undertook 60 pilgrimages, some for Ḥajj, and some for ‘Umrah.

CONNECT

@madrasahurwah